Where Time Is For Sale

A box of groceries representing the average household's food purchases might not at first glance seem particularly representative of progress. But a comparison of a similar selection of groceries of 1925 with those of today quickly reveal changes and advances little short of revolutionary. Fresh fruits and vegetables were obtainable only in season from local growers are now universally available the year round at reasonable prices. Our high speed distribution system and the use of refrigeration have all but eliminated seasonal influence on food supplies.

In addition to greater food variety and quality, today's housewife can buy another priceless commodity at her local food store—and that is time. In 1925 it took 12 hours to prepare a day's food for a family of four, using the great variety of highly processed modern foods now available, the same job can be done in 1 1/2 hours. One of the newer additions to the frozen food line are complete dinners, with all the trimmings, prepared and ready to eat—just heat and serve.

Groceries have changed a lot in the past thirty years and so have the stores which make them available to us. From the standpoint of quality and sheer overwhelming variety of quality foods, the modern super market has become a veritable Pandora's box of culinary delights. Ever-present active competition takes the lowest possible price the only one charged by profit and coming merchants—profit margins often running as low as or even lower than 1 1/2 cents per dollar of sales.

An hour's take-home pay will buy much more of nearly every kind of food now than it would in 1925. The average person eats more and better now than in those days and it still costs the same 25 per cent of his income. A box of groceries is not as spectacular as the latest jet aircraft—but it represents just a surely the rapid flow of progress.

The Cushion Grows

Here's a bit of good news: The American people are doing a pretty good job of voluntarily cushioning themselves against the financial impact of illness.

A survey made by the Health Insurance Council tells the story. Nearly two out of every three men, women and children in the United States are now covered by voluntary health insurance. Some 104,000,000 have insurance against hospital expense, 39,000,000 have surgical expense protection, and 50,000,000 have regular medical expense protection.

Payments by the health insurance companies and plans have risen sharply. Last year the total exceeded $2,700,000,000—a gain of 11 per cent over 1953. More than half of this went to help meet the hospital expenses of beneficiaries, more than $730,000,000 was compensation for surgical and medical care, and benefits to compensate for loss of income due to disability were in excess of $500,000,000.

Another striking fact is that since the beginning of 1941 the number of persons with hospital expense protection has multiplied nearly eight-and-one-half times.

Finally there is an important and very new development—major medical expense insurance, covering what is known as catastrophic illness. More than 2,200,000 people now have this protection—a jump of 83 per cent in a single year.

No one claims that the financial problems connected with illness are all solved. But the point is that we are making dramatic progress toward the goal—and we are doing it voluntarily and on our own hook, not because the government forces us to.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Ginger Apple Crisp (Serves 4)

6 tart apples
Juice and grated rind of 1 lemon
1/4 cup of water
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 ounce gingersnaps, crushed
1 cup chopped almonds
1/4 cup softened butter

Wash and quarter apples. Remove cores and slice, but do not peel. Place in buttered baking dish, sprinkle with lemon juice and rind. Mix sugar, gingersnap crumbs, almonds and butter. Place on top of apple slices. Bake in a moderate (350°F) oven for 30 minutes or until apples are tender.

chilled juice in the living room before dinner begins.

Add a pinch of rosemary to French dressing, which is to be served with fruit salads, but use curry powder in the French dressing which is to be served with vegetables for that extra flavor.

Tie these herbs in a cheesecloth bag to put in with fish that's steamed: chervil, tarragon and marjoram or summer savory. Discard the cheesecloth herb bag after cooking, but you'll have wonderful flavor for the fish.

Colored sugar makes a pretty decoration for simple sugar cookies. Add a drop or two of liquid food coloring to granulated sugar, rub with fingers to spread the coloring, then sprinkle on the cookies before baking.

neighbors.

Supervisor Craven of Frederic was in town Monday.

O. Milnes of Lewiston was in town last week looking as natural as ever, and if he would stay here would be welcomed back to our citizenship.

The mercury registered 92 degrees last Friday, 93 degrees last Saturday, and 92 degrees last Sunday. It is cooler now.

Miss Mary E. Fleming of Saginaw is visiting her brother, Rev. J. H. Fleming for a few weeks.

Anyone thinking our village deserted will only have to run over to Portage Lake to find the missing ones.

A new cement walk is going in this week on the north side of Ogema Street in front of Al Taylor and Mr. Hanson's residences.

Mrs. Collie Granger has bought the corner of Vine and Maple Streets. It is a pleasant home in a pleasant locality.

Calvary Ambassadors

The Ambassadors have been showing their parents what type of worship service and social gatherings are held during the regular Monday evening meeting.

July 19th the Ambassadors and their parents met at the Roy McEvers home for an evening of worship and Bible study.

Then on July 26th the parents were again invited to go with the Ambassadors for a ball game and potluck supper at the Pines.

Plans are already in the final stages for the Youth Conference which is being sponsored by the Ambassadors. Much effort is being put into this conference so that the young people will have a memorable evening of fellowship with other Christian young people.

August 13th at 6:30 P. M. in the Church Hall the Conference begins with a banquet for the Ambassadors, their friends, also the young people from Gerrish Baptist Church of Roseconan, the 1st Baptist Church of Frederic.

Following the banquet which is for young people only, good time of worship is expected when Mr. and Mrs. Marrow of Pontiac will conduct the evening service during which time the film "The Songs of Fanny Crosby" will be shown. This film features George "Bev" Shea the famed singer of the Billy Graham team. Everyone is invited to attend this evening service for a time of real spiritual refreshment.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrow of West Bloomfield Baptist Church, Pontiac, Michigan, have been active in Sunday school work for the past twenty five years. They have helped establish several Sunday schools in the Pontiac area that have grown into full time Baptist churches. They have also been active accompanists at evangelistic services. They have been at West Bloomfield for eight years and have been instrumental in causing the work there to grow from a small Sunday school group meeting in the basement of a township hall into a large and progressive church.

Mr. Morrow's regular job is that of driving an express truck between Pontiac and Detroit. Every evening is given freely to Christian work and two years ago they purchased a projector and Christian films to better help them in their work. Mrs. Morrow plays the piano and guitar and both Mr. and Mrs. Morrow sing.

Motte, in his first start for St. Mary's, was lifted for Pee Wee Lovely in the fifth-inning. Chuck Flitts had three hits for the losers. The Black and White, after trailing LaVictoire 1-0, came up with six runs, four in the sixth inning to down the Rockets, 6-1. Bob Gildner allowed only five hits and struck out four in his sixth victory against only two losses. Jerry Korhonen snapped out of his batting slump to aid him with a single, a double, and a triple. Two weeks of regular season games remain, in which each team has from four to six to play. ## Tom Honors Mrs. Vesta G. Peeke

Mrs. Warren B. Cooksey entertained at Sunrise Cabin Wednesday with a tea honoring her 80 year old mother, Mrs. Vesta G. Peeke, a retired missionary from Japan, now residing in Riverside, Calif.

Some of the guests remembered another daughter, Miss Olive Peeke (now Mrs. Olive Pawley) who taught in the Grayling High School. It was hoped that she could attend the tea but could not finish up her course at the University in Washington, D. C. in time. She plans to come to Sunrise on August 19th for the remainder of the summer vacation.

Mrs. Peeke will fly to Minneapolis on the 19th after visiting with Mrs. Pawley at Mrs. Cooksey's home in Detroit. Her eldest son, Mr. James W. Peeke lives in Minneapolis and another son, Dr. Alonzo P. Peeke in Volga, South Dakota. She will fly back in September to re-visit another son, Dr. Edwin S. Peeke at the Southern Oakland T. B. Sanatorium in Pontiac and yet another son, Mr. Raymond C. Peeke in Ypsilanti. She will have seen all her seven children, husbands and wives, seventeen grandchildren and three great grandchildren on this trip. She has enjoyed Grayling and the fine church service with Rev. E. C. Puffer and thinks the northern Michigan Pines are very beautiful. She had her first canoe trip last week from Sunrise to McMaster's Bridge and enjoyed seeing the beauty of the AuSable River.

Those attending the tea held Wednesday were:

Mrs. William C. Devereaux, Detroit and South Branch of AuSable, Grayling; Mrs. Rene Hooper, Florida and South Branch of AuSable, Grayling; Mrs. Charles Miller, Kenosha, Wis., and North Branch of AuSable; Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Detroit and North Branch of AuSable; Mrs. H. P. Richardson, Lapeer and AuSable; Mrs. Nora Keyport and Mrs. Ann Dobbins of Grayling; Mrs. B. Elmore Henig, Mrs. C. R. ## Which Guard men Friday afternoon for the title of the most outstanding soldier of 1955 field training. The best soldier in camp will receive the Brigadier General Earle R. Stewart Medal from Governor Williams Saturday.

The Commander-in-Chief's visit this week will climax the first week's training at Camp Grayling. The Governor is expected to arrive Friday evening. Saturday afternoon he will join Guard leaders and thousands of visitors as the massed strength and weapons of the 48th Division "pass in review".

Saturday evening Governor and Mrs. Williams will be the honored guests at the traditional reception for the Commander-in-Chief. Sunday morning he will deliver the principal address as Michigan Guardsmen pause in their rigorous training program to pay tribute to their heroic comrades of the past.

Some 587 new Guardsmen will be spared the usual fatigue assignments such as KP during the first week. The recruits will be given basic training in live schools for three days and will spend two days on the firing ranges. Practical tests on Friday will determine their basic proficiency.

Throughout the first week of training Michigan Guardsmen will be under the observing eyes of home-town civic and business leaders. Tuesday will see the military reservation visited by delegations from Flint, Lansing, Battle Creek, Charlotte, and Grand Ledge. Bay City, Saginaw, and Jackson visitors are expected Wednesday. Western Michigan units of the 128th Infantry Regiment will welcome home-town delegations Thursday to their centennial observance. Feature of the Infantry's celebration will be a display of the uniforms used in all "in which America has fought."

CARD OF THANKS

A thank you to our friends . . . May we take this means to thank to you wonderful people of Grayling and Crawford County for your many acts and deeds of kindness during the sickness and great loss of our darling, Pamela Lee Hunter.

To the Doctors, Lab Technicians and nurses of Children's Hospital, Detroit, and the Mercy Hospital, Grayling.

To the many people who volunteered their life blood through the efforts of the Grayling Kiwanis Club, and American Legion Post 106.

To the Ministers and members of all Churches who continually offered prayers for Pamela.

To the sisters of Mercy and Father Brientein, who, through their untiring efforts, gave us much needed comfort and spiritual strength in our great hour of need.

To Rev. Enselmann, for a most comforting and inspiring message of faith.

To the many, many people who sent floral offerings, gave money and Mass cards, and wrote us beautiful letters of hope and prayer.

To the many friends and neighbors and members of the Grayling Woman's Club who brought in food and gave so generously of their time.

To all you wonderful people, we say to you, from the depth of our hearts, that it is at times such as this when friends are most needed. We are so grateful to you, to share each other's joys and sorrows, to live in Grayling, to be with you, and to have you with us.

Your endless good deeds and prayers for Pamela have given us faith when we needed it most, and I know your prayers were an inspiration for Pamela.

Our Darling now rests in Heaven, and may her blessings be upon you for your great help.

God be with you.

Pama and Les Hunter
